Reseda Man Receives 30 Years for String of Armed Robberies

A 35-year-old Reseda man was sentenced today to 30 years in state prison for a series of armed robberies in the West San Fernando Valley, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Deputy District Attorney Kaveh Faturechi said Jason Paul Holman pleaded no contest to six counts of second-degree robbery and admitted being armed with a rifle during the robberies.

Holman robbed hundreds of dollars from a dozen locations between July 7, 2014 and Dec. 20, 2015. The locations included various fast food restaurants and gas stations, the prosecutor said.

Case PA085337 was investigated by the Los Angeles Police Department, Robbery-Homicide Division.
